'I joined the British Riding Clubs Centre Membership Scheme to help improve my riding and take part in Centre competitions, I have received lots of friendly help and advice along the way.'

Emma Weir and Charlie a member of Radway BRC Centre who is enjoying the experience.

... British Riding Clubs (BRC) part of The British Horse Society, is expanding its Centre Membership Scheme giving all riders the opportunity to join the BRC movement, with no additional cost attached to setting up as a BRC Centre.

Our BRC Centre Membership Scheme is designed to provide riders with all the advantages of BRC membership, helping them to improve their riding and horse care knowledge through recognised BRC training and assessments and now a NEW competition league covering dressage and style jumping, with fantastic prizes for both the Top Centre and Centre Members. We have once again teamed up with Interdressage and will be running an annual BRC Riding Club Centre League. Riders take part by submitting a video of themselves riding one of the Interdressage tests at their Riding Club Centre.
