

Snowdon Farm Riding School

is proud to present

Classical Dressage

with

Sylvia Loch

- Sunday 27th Oct 2013:

Lecture/Demo

7:00pm start

Price £20 per person • Includes refreshments • Free parking • Using 4 invited horses

- Mon 28th & Tue 29th Oct:

Clinic

10:00am start

£75 for a 1 hour lesson • £40.00 for a shared 1 hour lesson

Sylvia has been riding and practicing the art of Classical Dressage for over 40 years, establishing a large Classical Dressage academy of Luthens and Spanish horses in the UK back in 1979. In addition, she's a trainer, teacher, writer, video producer, lecturer, and the Founder of the Luthens-Bred Society of Great Britain and the Classical Riding Club. She has judged around the World, and has carried out a demonstration at the Royal Mews, Buckingham Palace together with a private audience with Her Royal Highness Queen Elizabeth II.

Long before Classical Dressage became fashionable and acceptable again, she was teaching and presenting the subject throughout the world including South and North America, South Africa, New Zealand & Australia. According to her publishers, she is the most prolific and widely read English speaking author on the subject alive today.

Please log on to Sylvia's website to read about her riding work with Classical Dressage: www.gfhbooks.com

Ring 01246 417172, or pop into the yard to buy your tickets

Snowdon Farm Riding School, Troway, Marsh Lane, Nr. Sheffield, S21 5RT

 01246 417172

www.snowdonfarmequestrian.co.uk