

BHS Ireland Adult Camp at Castle Leslie Estate, Co Monaghan 13 to 15 March 2020

The second BHS Ireland camp of 2019 is at Castle Leslie Estate, Co Monaghan from 13 to 15 March 2020.

We are privileged to have the great team of Carole Broad FBHS and Mark Robinson, Stage 5 Performance Coach in Complete Horsemanship to provide inspiration for us.

This is a great opportunity to get 2020 started in the best way for you and your equine best friend!

What could be better than indulgent accommodation in the Village Cottages for you, luxurious stabling for your horse and superb instruction with state of the art facilities?

The facilities include a large modern indoor school, compact out door and a 100 acre cross-country field with a wide variety of fences to suit most levels of horse and rider. Of course there is also access to accompanied rides through the 25 km of pathways on the estate.

You will eat delicious food, laugh and chat and exchange stories and valuable information amongst long standing and new friends!

What is provided:-

* Stabling, mucking out, feeding and ad lib hay for 2 nights

*Luxurious accommodation in the Village Cottages.

*All meals

*5 lessons or one lesson may be replaced by an accompanied hack on Castle Leslie Estate, which has 25 km of paths.

*Also on offer is access to the Health Spa at The Lodge, treatments can be booked directly.

Spaces are limited so book quickly. The cost is £599 per person or the equivalent in euro (Please note that a minimum of 12 paid up places is required for a camp to take place).

Pre-booking is essential - You may pay by Paypal to s.irwin@bhs.org.uk. Monthly or quarterly payments are accepted.

About Carole Broad FBHS

Carole is based in Herefordshire and was Chief Instructor at the renowned Huntley School of Equitation for 34 years. She has a very long standing association with the BHS Education system. Carole teaches all riders, from novice to those taking the BHS Fellowship exam. She is an empathetic coach, who misses nothing and gives simple guidance for the most effective of results.

About Mark Robinson BHS Stage 5 Performance Coach in Complete Horsemanship

Mark is based in Co Down. He is an extremely stylish and classical rider and high level coach and improves both horse and rider in a logical, classical and effective manner. He really enjoys teaching and seeing the improvements that it brings.
